Support programs for undergraduate international students

1. Division of International Liberal Arts

- The Recommended Curriculum is exclusively for international students to help them adjust to the academic workload required by Aju University. The Division of International Liberal Arts provides courses on academic Korean and basic courses for two semesters.

2. New student mentor program

- Each new student is paired with one international and one Korean upperclassman to facilitate their adjustment to life at Aju University and in Korea. Opportunities are provided by colleges/departments for new students to meet and socialize.

3. Pre-College, new student orientation, Welcome Week

- The Pre-College program offers incoming students lessons on academic Korean that will be useful to them for the duration of their time at Aju University as well as related information before the semester begins.
- For new students, there is an orientation session that provides important information on academic life (general facts on Aju University, how to register for courses and scholarships, how to take classes online, etc.) and Welcome Week.

4. Writing Clinic

- Students having difficulties with academic Korean writing (papers, team reports, presentation material, preparing for written exams, etc.) can receive assistance from a graduate student tutor with Korean spelling and grammar as well as general proofreading.

5. TOPIK classes and registration fee subsidies/assistance

- To receive scholarship benefits and graduate, students are required to pass the TOPIK Level 4 exam. Each semester, TOPIK classes are offered to ensure that students receive high scores.

Undergraduate international students whose most recent TOPIK score is at least one level higher than their previous score or received Level 4 or higher on their first TOPIK will have their registration fee waived.

6. Cultural experience

- Each semester, visits are made to a venue that fosters understanding of Korean culture, history or traditions. Such visits may be offered alongside various experience-based activities on traditional Korean culture.

7. Career and Employment Support

- Providing useful information on career and employment through special lectures by experts, such as how to find employment information and what to prepare for employment, and supports internships and employment through industry-academic linkage.

8. Counseling

- Students having a hard time with university life can discuss difficulties related to school, psychological issues, vocational issues, learning/academic difficulties, and/or things they would like to know more about living in Korea with a counselor. Counseling is available in multiple formats, including 1:1 face-to-face meetings, online (Zoom) meetings, and digital chatrooms.

Important Notes

A. On nationality

- Applicants will only be deemed eligible foreigners if both parents had foreign nationality before the applicant started the curriculum that is compatible with Korea's high school program.
- If only one parent (father or mother) is legally responsible for financially supporting the applicant, only the nationality of the parent with this legal responsibility will be considered. The applicant is responsible for submitting government-issued documents that verify such fact.
- If either the applicant or one or both of his/her parents are dual citizens with Korean nationality, this will render the applicant ineligible. If the applicant's dual nationality is discovered after he/she has been accepted, the acceptance will be rescinded.
- In the event of an anomaly or extenuating circumstances regarding family relations or nationality (e.g divorce, remarriage, unmarried single parent, death, disappearance, acquiring Korean nationality), the applicant must submit a government-issued document that verifies such anomaly or extenuating circumstance.

Important Notes

B. On level of education

- Grades for elementary, middle and high school will be recognized based on the Korean school system. (i.e. Grades 1~6 of a foreign educational curriculum will be regarded as elementary school, grades 7~9 as middle school, and grades 10~12 as high school).
- For applicants from countries whose elementary, middle and high school systems add up to less than 12 years, only those applicants recognized by Korea's Minister of Education as having completed a foreign school system that is compatible with Korean high school will be recognized as having the equivalent of a high school diploma.
- Decisions on whether the applicant should be recognized as having graduated from high school will be based on various factors (i.e. school system of respective country) in comparison to Korea's high school system.
- Korean or foreign high school graduation equivalency exam scores, home schooling and cyber educational programs are not recognized as equivalent to a high school diploma. Applicants who have taken courses at a online university or college will not be accepted as transfer students.
- If you are applying to undertake your degree in English, if your native language is English or you have completed elementary, middle and high school in English, you may apply without taking an English proficiency test
- Korean Government-invited scholarship students must follow the National Institute for International Education's admission guidelines on Korean proficiency.

Important Notes

Please note regarding submitted documents

1. All documents that are in a language other than Korean or English must be submitted with a notarized Korean or English translation.
2. As a rule, original documents must be submitted. Submitted documents are not returned to the applicant. If there are extenuating circumstances that prevent submission of the original copy by the application deadline, the applicant may receive permission from the International Admissions Team to submit a copy first and submit the original by a later date. Failure to submit the original(s) by the date designated by the International Admissions Team or any discrepancy between the copy and original may result in rescinding of admission.
3. If it is discovered, whether before or after entering Ajou University, that an applicant gained admission through dishonest or unfair means (e.g. forgery or falsification of submitted documents, failure to meet qualifications, test taking by someone else), admission and the right to take classes based on such admission will be revoked immediately. In this case, the tuition payment made by the applicant will not be refunded.
4. Prospective graduates must, after graduating, submit the documents required by the selected item of the above-mentioned "Proof of level of education" by the date designated by Ajou University. If the applicant fails to submit evidential graduation documents by the start of the school year or experiences delays in visa acquisition due to the delay in document submission, his/her admission may be rescinded.
5. Applicants with a score from a language education center of an accredited Korean university of Level 4 or higher or have received (or are expecting to receive) TOPIK Level 3 or higher may be accepted on the condition that they submit proof of such completion or scores by February 2023. In this case, admission is finalized only after the evidential documents are submitted. If the applicant fails to submit evidential documents by the deadline or acquire the expected score, his/her admission will be rescinded.
6. In the case of a transcript if it is impossible to issue grades or grades for each semester according to the national/school transcript system, the International Admissions Team may request relevant evidence or additional documents.
7. The International Admissions Team may add or remove from the list of required documents depending on the content and/or status of the applicant's documents. Applicants who are asked to submit additional paperwork must provide such paperwork by the requested deadline.

Other Important information

- 📖 Evaluation of submitted admission materials is kept strictly confidential. All matters related to screening and assessment are decided by Ajou University's International Admissions Committee. Matters that are not delineated in these guidelines will be decided through an Ajou University's Admission Screening Committee.
- 📖 Failure to pay tuition, after being notified of acceptance, by the designated deadline will result in rescinding of the applicant's acceptance. Those who are wire transferring their tuition from overseas must include the international remittance charge.
- 📖 When students do not comply with University's prescribed process and rules, or required documents are not completely submitted, the students will be disqualified.
- 📖 If a student is found to have applied through illegal means, such as submission of false or forged documents or altered representation of eligibility, admission will be denied
- 📖 Documents that are not written in either Korean or English must be enclosed with notarized translations into Korean or English
- 📖 According to Korea's National Health Insurance Act and Enforcement Decree of the National Health Insurance Act, starting from March 1, 2021, foreign study-abroad students are automatically registered for local subscriber health insurance. Information on insurance, including fees, will be provided to accepted applicants. It is recommended that items not covered by the National Health Insurance Service be covered through a private insurance plan (traveler's insurance or insurance for study-abroad students).
- 📖 Graduation is possible only after obtaining TOPIK level 4 or higher (In case of English language course, IELTS 5.5 or TOEFL IBT 71 or equivalent in recognized English grades is needed)
- 📖 Students whose period of stay expires during the application process must extend it by registering for a language study program (to extend a D-4 visa).
- 📖 Those who are unable to receive a visa by the deadline designated by Ajou University or the Korean Immigration Office or for whom grounds are found for disqualification regarding sojourn may have their acceptance status revoked even if the semester has already begun. In this case, Ajou University does not assume any responsibility for tuition-related losses.
- 📖 For those residing outside of Korea (or first-time D-2 visa applicants), the OIA will send a copy of the applicant's Certificate of Admission or Ajou University's business registration via email.
 - Please apply for a D-2 visa, after preparing the following documents, through an in-person visit to the Korean embassy or consulate in your country of residence.
 - ① Application form (with photo attached) and commission fee ② Form of legal identification ③ Passport ④ Certificate of Admission (if you do not have the original, a copy is acceptable)

※ Required documents may vary slightly by country. Be sure to check with your local Korean embassy or consulate in advance.
