

Short-term Japanese Language and Cultural Studies (Summer Program)

This program is designed as a short-term intensive language course. In addition to the language study component, lectures and practical classes by our academic staff on Japan and Japanese culture with a focus on Kyoto are also offered. Homestay (one night) will be also arranged in order to experience ordinary Japanese family life.

Outside of class time participants will be supported by Kyoto Women's University students. We will arrange dormitory accommodation with bathroom and mini-kitchen.
